

GOVERNMENT OF PUERTO RICO

Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation

Tuesday, February 9, 2021

PRESS RELEASE

First Circuit Upholds Confirmation of COFINA Plan of Adjustment

(San Juan, Puerto Rico) – On February 8, 2021, the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit affirmed Judge Laura Taylor Swain’s order confirming the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (the “Corporation” or “COFINA,” by its Spanish acronym) Plan of Adjustment under the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”). The Court concluded that efforts to revoke the COFINA Plan of Adjustment were barred under the doctrine of equitable mootness because the plan has already been implemented.

“COFINA’s independent Board of Directors and its management are pleased that the Court of Appeals for the First Circuit upheld COFINA’s Plan of Adjustment, as it reconfirms the Corporation’s successful restructuring,” added Mr. Carlos M. Yamín, COFINA’s Executive Director.

For a copy of the Court’s opinion, please visit <https://law.justia.com/cases/federal/appellate-courts/ca1/19-1181/19-1181-2021-02-08.html>.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements, which include, but are not limited to, expectations with respect to the COFINA Bonds. The Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority (“AAFAF”) and COFINA cannot provide assurances that the future developments affecting AAFAF, COFINA, or the bonds will be as anticipated. Actual results may differ materially from those expectations due to a variety of factors. Any forward-looking statement made in this release speaks only as of the date hereof and AAFAF and COFINA do not undertake any obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

###